HART CROWSER WELCOMES NEW STAFF

Seattle, WA (August 27, 2007)—Eight new staff members in Seattle, Edmonds and Portland have joined Hart Crowser.

New Seattle staff members are Anne Conrad; Mandy Michalsen, PhD; Kim Reinauer; Dawn Matisse; and Jonathan Ebnet. Conrad, a geochemist with 15 years of experience, is assisting with projects for the Washington State Department of Ecology's Puget Sound Initiative. Michalsen, an environmental engineer, comes to Hart Crowser from Oregon State University, where she focused on environmental remediation using reactive barriers. Reinauer is an environmental engineer with an MS from the University of Illinois. Her background focuses on chemical transformation in the environment and stormwater management. Matisse is a geologist who will perform field sampling and provide geotechnical soils testing in Hart Crowser's in-house laboratory. Ebnet, who recently received his MS in geology from Portland State University, has performed glacier melt computer modeling in Antarctica.
